

Welcome New Graduate Students!

We are so glad you will be joining us for the Fall 2024 semester. Beginning as a new student can feel overwhelming, but we hope this document will offer some important information, and as always, for any further questions or information, please visit Grace in Light Engineering Room 113 or email graceanne.rossano@stonybrook.edu

Before classes begin, please be sure to review the New Graduate Online Orientation provided by the Graduate School. As a new graduate student, you will learn more about the available on-campus resources and experience more of what Stony Brook University has to offer!

Finding Your Community

If you are looking for social events to connect with your peers, consider joining the Graduate Student Organization. For more information, you can email our GSO representatives: Si.Chen.2@stonybrook.edu / Yiting.Zheng@stonybrook.edu - You can also follow the GSO on Instagram @stonybrook_gso

Need Help Registering for Classes?

Please review the following video tutorial to learn how to Enroll in Classes using SOLAR (Search by “MEC” to see the list of available classes. Graduate Classes are number 500 and above.) If you have any further questions about enrollment or credit requirements, please contact Grace for assistance.

All TA's need to enroll in MEC 697 - If you will be a TA this Fall, please send Grace your Stony Brook ID number. Grace will add the permission and then you will be able to register for the course through SOLAR.

Keeping In Touch

For current news about the department and our faculty/student research, please follow our Mechanical Engineering LinkedIn Page!

Ask A Current Student:

Amanda Sirna is a current PhD student in our department. If you have any program-related questions, feel free to reach out to her and introduce yourself!
